PROVINCIAL SECRETARY.

"GOVERNMENT LIQUOR ACT."

April 10th, 1933.

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve of the following amendment to Regulation No. 40 of the Liquor Control Board, made by the said Board on the 8th day of April, 1933:—

LIQUOR CONTROL BOARD.

RE REGULATION NO. 40.

Resolution No. 5279.—Resolved, That, subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, Regulation No. 40 of the regulations of the Liquor Control Board, approved by Order in Council No. 461 on the 21st April, 1931, be rescinded.

And be it further Resolved, That, pursuant to the provisions of clause (k) of subsection (2) of section 119 of the "Government Liquor Act," being chapter 146 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1924," the Liquor Control Board, subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, makes the following regulation, to be known as Regulation No. 40 of the regulations of the Liquor Control Board:—

Regulation No. 40.

The fee in connection with the issuance of a duplicate permit issued pursuant to the provisions of section 14 of the "Government Liquor Act" shall be as follows:—

Where an individual permit issued pursuant to the provisions of clause (a) of section 11 of the "Government Liquor Act" has been lost or destroyed, the fee which shall be paid for the issuance of a duplicate individual permit in lieu of the individual permit so lost or destroyed shall be twenty-five cents.

This regulation shall become effective on April 18th, 1933. 3702-ap13

April 10th, 1933.

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to accept the following resignations:—

Joseph Walters, as Assistant Censor of Moving Pictures in the office of the Censor of Moving Pictures, Vancouver, from the 31st day of May, 1933.

John Conway, of Cumberland, as a Stipendiary Magistrate in and for the Counties of Vancouver and Nanaimo.

John Conway, of Cumberland, as a Coroner in and for the Province. 3705-ap13

ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

"GAME ACT."

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to order that under the provisions of the "Game Act" the Game-tag Regulations made pursuant to the "Game Act" and published in the Gazette of the 12th May, 1932, at page 807, and the amendment to said regulations made by Order in Council No. 900, approved August 4th, 1932, be rescinded, and the following regulations be substituted therefor:—

GAME-TAG REGULATIONS.

1. Each deer, as defined under the "Game Act," shall, when killed or taken, have a seal which has not been previously used attached to the carcass thereof, and such seal must be securely attached to the carcass by the person killing or taking the animal and to whom the seal has been issued in accordance with the provisions of these regulations.

2. Seals are to be issued by any Game Warden, Provincial Constable, Government Agent, or any person authorized by the Game Commissioner, and the seal shall be in the shape and style as decided upon by the Game Commissioner.

3. A fee of twenty-five cents (25c.) is to be payable for every seal.

4. The seal shall remain on the carcass of the deer until the carcass has been removed or transported to the place where it is proposed to consume the carcass.

5. The transfer of seals by any licensee-holder to another is prohibited.

6. Should any purchaser of seals possess any unused seals after the expiration of the open season on deer for which the seals were obtained, then on his producing these unused seals and his expired firearms licence at the time he takes out his firearms licence for the next year the numbers of the seals shall be entered on his new firearms licence, and they can then be used during the next open season on deer as outlined in these regulations.

7. These regulations shall not apply in respect to any deer killed by an Indian, prospector, surveyor, or farmer (on his own property only) for use for food pursuant to the provisions in that behalf contained in section 9 of the "Game Act."

8. Any person authorized to issue firearms licences and from whom deer seals have been purchased must note the numbers of the seals so purchased in the space provided for this purpose on the purchaser's firearms licence.

9. Any person found in possession of the carcass of a deer to which a seal has not been affixed shall be deemed to have committed an offence against these regulations.

AGRICULTURE.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given that, under the authority of the "Agricultural Act," chapter 8 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1924," the attached regulations have been approved by Order in Council No. 450, dated April 12th, 1933.

REGULATIONS.

NORTH KAMLOOPS PROTECTION SPRAYING ZONE.

1. For the prevention, treatment, care, and extirpation of fruit pests, all orchards, gardens, and fruit-trees within the protection spraying zone hereinafter defined shall be subject to inspection by any officer of the Department of Agriculture.

2. Every owner and every caretaker of any orchard or garden containing apple, pear, or crab-apple trees situate within the said protection spraying zone shall spray all apple, pear, and crab-apple trees owned by him or under his care or control at least four times in each year with arsenical spray composed of 1 lb. of arsenate to 40 gallons of water, to be applied by means of an efficient spraying equipment, as follows:—

No. 1. A calyx-spray to be applied when the blossoms are falling.

No. 2. A cover-spray to be applied from two to three weeks after the No. 1 spray.

No. 3. A cover-spray to be applied from two to three weeks after the No. 2 spray.

No. 4. A cover-spray to be applied between the 25th day of July and the 6th day of August.

Provided that in any case, if in the opinion of the Minister or of any officer of the Department of Agriculture the application of the said four sprays is unnecessary, the Minister or officer may issue to the owner or caretaker a permit exempting him from applying any one or more of said sprays other than the No. 1 spray.

Provided further that the Minister or any officer of the Department of Agriculture may issue to any owner or caretaker a permit authorizing him to substitute for any one or more of said sprays such spray of a different composition as the Minister or officer may approve.

3. On or before the 1st day of September in each year the owner or caretaker of any orchard or garden containing any apple, pear, or crab-apple trees situate within the said protection spraying zone shall forward to the Minister of Agriculture an affidavit proving compliance by such owner or caretaker with the last preceding regulation.

4. The area of land described as follows is for the purposes of these regulations defined as a protection spraying zone, to be known as the "North Kamloops Protection Spraying Zone":—

All that tract of land situate in the Kamloops Division of Yale District, which may be more particularly described as follows: Bounded on the north by the Tranquille Road to Halston Station; thence north-easterly by the Canadian National Railway line to the North Thompson River; on the east by the North Thompson River to the junction of the North and South Thompson Rivers; on the south by the main Thompson River; and on the west by a line drawn from the Thompson River to the Tranquille Road, following the west boundary of Map 1105.

5. Every person violating any provision of or failing to perform or carry out any duty imposed by these regulations shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $100.

And that the regulations made by Order in Council No. 513, approved the 30th day of April, 1930, with respect to the North Kamloops Protection Spraying Zone be revoked.

"MARRIAGE ACT."

WHEREAS Angelo Cantarutti and Livia Clozza, both of the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia, were by Licence Number 9480B, duly issued, purported to be joined in matrimony by Rev. Henry A. Thayer, O.M.I., at the said City of Vancouver on the 25th day of February, 1933:

And whereas it appears that the said Rev. Henry A. Thayer, O.M.I., was not authorized under the provisions of the "Marriage Act" to perform the ceremony of marriage between the said parties:

And whereas evidence, by statutory declarations, has been filed with me in terms of section 37 of the "Marriage Act":

Now, therefore, I, the undersigned, by virtue of the powers in me vested by said section 37, do hereby declare the requirements of the said "Marriage Act" as to the registration of the said Rev. Henry A. Thayer, O.M.I., to solemnize marriages to be waived in respect of the marriage ceremony performed by him as aforesaid; and I do hereby further, by virtue of the said powers, declare that the said marriage shall be deemed to be and is and has been from the date of the solemnization thereof a lawful and valid marriage.

Given under my hand at Victoria, British Columbia, this 11th day of April, 1933.

DOMINION ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

P.C. No. 468.

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA,

WEDNESDAY, the 15th day of March, 1933,

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS the Minister of the Interior reports that a petition signed by all the owners of property adjacent to Itatsoo Lake, situated in the District of Clayoquot, on Vancouver Island, in the Province of British Columbia, has been received, in which it is requested that the said lake be established as a bird sanctuary:

That both the Chief Federal Migratory Bird Officer for the Western Provinces (Mr. J. A. Munro) and Mr. A. Bryan Williams, Game Commissioner for the Province of British Columbia, state that it is most desirable that this sanctuary be established, and the Department of Indian Affairs concurs, provided that the rights of the Indians in respect to removal of timber and cultivating the hundred-yard strip around the lake are not interfered with:

Therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General in Council, on the recommendation of the Minister of the Interior, is pleased to order that the lands herein described be and they are hereby created a bird sanctuary under and by virtue of the provisions of section 4 (2) of the "Migratory Birds Convention Act," chapter 130, R.S. 1927, to be known as "Itatsoo Lake Bird Sanctuary"; provided that the Indians, notwithstanding the creation of such sanctuary, shall have the right of removing timber and cultivating in the hundred-yard strip bordering the said lake.

Description.—Itatsoo Lake, situated in the District of Clayoquot, on Vancouver Island, Province of British Columbia, also a strip of land around the said lake extending one hundred yards from shore.

His Excellency in Council is further pleased to order that the killing, hunting, capturing, injuring, taking, or molesting of migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, or the taking, injuring, destruction, or molestation of their nests or eggs, be and it is hereby prohibited at all times within the said sanctuary.

(Signed) E. J. LEMAIRE.

No. 13318.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Mammoth Collieries, Ltd.," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 3rd day of April, 1933.

The Company is authorized to issue ten thousand shares without nominal or par value.

The address of its registered office is 6th Floor, Royal Trust Building, 626 Pender Street West, Vancouver, British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire mining properties, real estate, timber lands, and any other properties whatsoever, real or personal, and to pay for the same either in cash or by allotments of shares of this Company, and to carry on the business of a mining, coal-mining, mineral reduction, and development company in all its branches:

(b.) To carry on the business of miners of every description:

(c.) To prospect for, open, explore, develop, work, improve, maintain, and manage coal, iron, and other mines, quarries, mineral and other deposits and properties, and to dig for, raise, and otherwise treat coal, iron, ores, metals, and minerals, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to sell and otherwise dispose of the same and any part thereof and any interest therein:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, concession, licence, exchange, or other legal title, mines, mining lands, easements, mineral properties or any interest therein, minerals and ores and mining claims, options, powers, privileges, water and other rights, patent rights, processes, and mechanical or other contrivances, and either absolutely or conditionally, and either solely or jointly with others, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and to lease, place under licence, sell, dispose of, and otherwise deal with the same or any part thereof or any interest therein:

(e.) To acquire and maintain the full right and power to make, secure, and use all pits, shafts, drifts, levels, and drains, and to construct, erect, maintain, and use ways, tramways, conveyors, works, machinery, engines, coal-bunkers, and all conveniences whatsoever as may be necessary or convenient for searching for, working, winning, getting, preparing, carrying away, and disposing of the products of the said mines or seams of coal upon any lands whatsoever acquired by the Company or over which the Company exercises control:

(f.) To carry on the business of general contractors; to own and operate wholesale and retail stores; to purchase and sell merchandise of all kinds; to complete, acquire, possess, and operate factories, mills, machine-shops, blacksmith-shops, and machinery of all kinds, and to purchase, sell, and deal in machinery and other stores, supplies, and merchandise:

(g.) To apply for, acquire, hold, and use water rights and water necessary for all or any of the purposes of the Company, and to develop the same; to acquire and use water for creation of water-power, and to erect and maintain works, plant, and machinery in connection therewith, and to take, have, and enjoy the full benefit of the "Water Act" and any amendments thereto:

(h.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services or other valuable consideration.

The word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs hereto shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company), but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

(l.) To buy, sell, manufacture, repair, alter, exchange, let on hire, import, export, and deal in all kinds of goods, articles, and things which may be required for the purposes of, or commonly dealt in by persons engaged in, or which may seem capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with the or any of the said businesses:

(m.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient or useful in connection with or incidental to any of its objects, and to make advances in cash, goods, or other supplies to other persons, companies, or firms, and to take and hold real and personal securities for the same:

(n.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise machinery, plant, equipment, and other personal property of every nature and description, lands, buildings, factories, workshops, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights in, to, or over the same or included therewith, rights-of-way, light, water, and other rights or privileges, business and trade secrets, and to use, hold, manage, operate, exchange, sell, rent, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with, dispose of, or turn to account the same or any portion thereof or any interest therein as may seem expedient:

(o.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, firm, or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company or any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire securities of any such person, company, or customer, or shares or debentures of such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with, dispose of, or turn to account the same or any portion thereof:

(p.) To amalgamate with any person or persons or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of this Company or otherwise, and for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of the Company or cash, as the Company may think fit:

(q.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise turn to account, deal with, or dispose of the property and rights of the Company or any part thereof of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, with power to accept shares, debentures, or securities in other companies, and, in the case of shares, either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration of the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon:

(r.) To promote or assist in promoting any company or companies for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(s.) To undertake any liabilities of and take or otherwise acquire and hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of the business, property, or effects or the shares of any other company, association, firm, or person having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(t.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) and other companies which may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government, authority, or companies any charters, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions which the Company may deem advisable, and to hold, use, carry out, exercise, enjoy, and to comply with and, if deemed advisable, sell, transfer, assign, mortgage, lease, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the or any of the same or any interest therein:

(u.) To apply for, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, use, exercise, or develop, sell, grant licences in respect of, or otherwise deal with, dispose of, or turn to account any process, improvement, mechanism or device, or any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, privileges, and the like, or any interest in the same, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions:

(v.) To sell any patent, rights, or privileges belonging to the Company or which may be acquired by it, or any interest in the same, and to grant licences for the use and practice of the same or any of them, and to allow to be used or otherwise deal with or turn to account any invention, patent, or privilege in which the Company may be interested:

(w.) To contribute to, or subsidize or otherwise assist, aid, or take part in any operations similar to the or any of the operations capable of being undertaken, carried on, or maintained by this Company, though undertaken, constructed, or maintained by any other person or company:

(x.) To borrow, raise, or secure payment of money, with or without powers of sale or other special conditions, in such manner or form and by such means as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property or any portion thereof, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, or the acceptance, endorsement, or issuance of promissory notes and other negotiable instruments, and to mortgage and pledge any of the Company's assets, income, or uncalled capital for the purpose of securing the same, and to make, grant, and execute mortgages, bills of sale, bonds, debentures, or other securities for the same on security of the whole or any part of the property and assets belonging to the Company, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities or indebtedness:

(y.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, promotion, registration, incorporation, establishment, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in procuring any profit or benefit for the Company, or placing, selling, underwriting, or otherwise dealing with or disposing of the Company's shares, debentures, or other securities, property, or assets, or any portion thereof, or assisting so to do, and to pay wages or salaries for services rendered in and about the formation of the Company or in or about the conduct of its business, either in money or by the allotment of fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in fully paid-up shares of the Company:

(z.) To create, draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, issue, and negotiate promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, bonds, obligations, warrants, debentures, debenture stock, and other negotiable and transferable instruments, documents, and securities:

(z1.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any Province of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(z2.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(z3.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(z4.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others; provided that nothing in all the foregoing shall authorize the Company to exercise the powers of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act":

(z5.) To do all such other acts, deeds, and things as the Company may deem to be necessary, incidental, instrumental, or conducive to the attainment of the or any of the Company's objects:

(z6.) It is expressly declared that the intention is that the objects set forth in the foregoing paragraphs shall be construed in the most liberal way, and shall in no way be limited or restricted by reference to any other paragraph or by any inference drawn from the terms of any other paragraph.

To prospect for, open, explore, develop, work, improve, maintain, and manage gold, silver, copper, nickel, lead, coal, iron, zinc, oil, or other mineral substances of any nature or kind whatsoever, and other mines, quarries, mineral and other deposits and properties, and to dig for, dredge, raise, crush, wash, smelt, roast, assay, analyse, reduce, and amalgamate and otherwise treat ores, metals, and mineral substances of all kinds, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof or any interest therein, and generally to carry on the business of a mining, milling, reduction, and development company, and to do photographic work, aerial prospecting, and make geological surveys of all manner of minerals, including oil:

(b.) To acquire by purchase, lease, concession, licence, exchange, or other legal title, mines, mining lands, easements, mineral properties, or any interest therein, minerals and ores and mining claims, options, powers, privileges, water and other rights, patent rights, processes, and mechanical or other contrivances, and either absolutely or conditionally, and either solely or jointly with others, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and to lease, place under licence, sell, dispose of, and otherwise deal with the same or any part thereof or any interest therein:

(c.) To seek for and secure openings for the employment of capital in British Columbia and elsewhere, and with a view thereto to prospect, inquire, examine, explore, test, and to dispatch and employ expeditions, prospectors, and other agents:

(d.) To purchase, lease, hire, or otherwise acquire for the purposes of the Company any real or personal property or interest therein, and from time to time to sell, demise, let, mortgage or dispose of the same, and particularly to buy and operate aeroplanes:

(e.) To subscribe for, conditionally or unconditionally, to underwrite or otherwise take, hold, deal in, and convert debentures, bonds, stocks, shares, and securities of all kinds:

(f.) To purchase or take options to purchase shares in any other company, and to sell and dispose thereof or exchange the same for shares in other companies:

(g.) To lend and invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined, and to borrow moneys for the purposes of the Company:

(h.) To draw, accept, and make, and to endorse, discount, and negotiate, bills of exchange and promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable instruments:

(i.) To take over, carry on, and operate the business of any person, firm, or corporation in so far as the same may be necessary for the release of any moneys owing to the Company by such firm, person, or corporation:

(j.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or be possessed of any property suitable to the purposes of this Company, and as consideration for same to pay cash or issue shares, stocks, or obligations of the Company:

(k.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to reorganize the Company, and to amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(l.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company, and to secure the repayment of the same in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(m.) To enter into contracts for the allotment of and to allot shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, including any services rendered to the Company, as the Company may from time to time determine:

(n.) To distribute any property of the Company in specie among the members, and to procure the Company to do business or be recognized in any other place or country:

(o.) To do all such things as the Company may think are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(p.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise.

WATER NOTICES.

WATER NOTICE.

DIVERSION AND USE.

TAKE NOTICE that we, The Corporation of the District of West Vancouver, whose address is Hollyburn P.O., will apply for a licence to take and use 500,000 gallons per day of water out of Cypress Creek, which flows southerly and drains into English Bay at about one-half mile east of Caulfeild Post-office.

The water will be diverted from the stream at about 100 feet up-stream from the high falls in District Lot 886, and will be used for municipal purposes upon the lands described as the whole corporate limits of West Vancouver.

This notice was posted on the ground on the 22nd day of March, 1933.

The petition for the approval of the undertaking will be heard in the office of the Board at a date to be fixed, and any interested person may file an objection thereto in the office of the Comptroller or of the Water Recorder of the District.

(Signed) JAMES DUNCAN,

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

DEPARTMENT OF LANDS (WATER RIGHTS BRANCH).

Further Certificate of Approval of Undertaking.

WHEREAS the Vancouver Power Company, Limited, is a company incorporated under the laws of the Province of British Columbia and is authorized to construct and operate works for the utilization of water:

And whereas the said Company is the holder of Water Records Nos. 10, 11, and 32, authorizing the diversion, use, and storage of water from Coquitlam Lake and Trust Lake (also known as Lake Beautiful and as Lake Buntzen):

And whereas the undertakings of the said Company in respect of the diversion, use, and storage of water from the said lakes were approved by three certificates issued on the 14th day of February, 1902; the 18th day of May, 1906; and the 19th day of May, 1908, respectively:

And whereas the said Company did on October 13th, 1928, make application for licences authorizing the diversion and use of an additional 930 cubic feet of water per second from Coquitlam Lake and the storage of additional water in the said lake:

And whereas the Company has petitioned for the approval of its undertaking relative to the said application:

And whereas it appears in the public interest to grant the prayer of the Company's said petition:

This is to certify that the undertaking of the Vancouver Power Company, Limited, relative to the diversion and use of 930 cubic feet of water per second from Coquitlam Lake for the generation of electric energy and the storage of 29,500 acre-feet of water in the said lake, as the said undertaking is outlined in the petition of the said Company filed with the Comptroller of Water Rights on the 14th day of November, 1928, is hereby approved, subject to the provisions of the "Water Act" and the following conditions:—

The term of every licence that may be issued in pursuance of the Company's above-mentioned application shall be limited to expire on December 31st, 1961.

The territory within which the said Company may distribute and sell the electric energy generated by it from the waters of Coquitlam Lake shall comprise that part of the Mainland of the Province of British Columbia within 100 miles of the outlet of the said lake.

This certificate does not authorize the diversion of any water or the construction of any works, nor is it an approval of the plans of any works.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., this 16th day of March, 1933.

I HEREBY CERTIFY:—

(1.) That the registration of the Canadian Financiers Trust Company under the "Trust Companies Act" has this day been cancelled, and that the Company, under the name of "Canadian Financiers Vancouver, Limited," is now subject to the provisions of the "Companies Act," and that its objects as altered are as follows:—

(a.) To purchase and otherwise acquire and deal in, hold, sell, lease, exchange, mortgage, and hypothecate real and personal property of all kinds, and in particular lands, buildings, hereditaments, timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, mines, minerals, coal and oil lands, surface rights and rights-of-way, water records and privileges, business concerns and undertakings, mortgages, charges, annuities, patents, licences, shares, stocks, debentures, securities, policies, book debts, claims, and any interest in real or personal property or against any person or company:

(b.) To lend money and negotiate loans upon such terms as are deemed expedient, with power to take security for the same, or any other indebtedness owing to the Company, upon real estate, ground-rents, Dominion, Provincial, British, foreign, or other public securities, or upon the stock, shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities or guarantees as are deemed expedient, and to acquire by purchase or otherwise any of the aforesaid property or assets which may have been pledged with the Company as security for such loan or indebtedness, and to resell the same:

(c.) To draw, accept, endorse, discount, buy, sell, and deal in bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, coupons, and other negotiable instruments and securities:

(d.) To issue on commission, subscribe for, take, acquire, and hold, sell, exchange, and deal in shares, stocks, bonds, obligations, or securities of any Government, authority, or company:

(e.) To form, promote, subsidize, and assist companies, syndicates, and partnerships of all kinds:

(f.) To give any guarantee for the payment of money or the performance of any obligation or undertaking within the objects of the Company:

(g.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(h.) To act as agent of any corporate body for any purpose now or hereafter required by Statute or otherwise:

(i.) To act in the name of principals as general or special agent or attorney in the acquisition, management, sale, assignment, transfer, encumbrance, conveyance, or other disposition of any real or personal property, the investment and collection of moneys, rents, interests, dividends, hypothecs, bonds, notes, and other securities, and generally as the representative of any Government, body corporate, or person in the transaction of business; to invest in the name of the Company the funds of two or more principals, for whom the Company is acting as agent, in an investment in real estate or upon the security of real estate for the benefit of such principals, and to execute and deliver a declaration in favour of each principal showing his respective interest in such investment:

(j.) To act as special or general agent of any insurance company or surety company lawfully carrying on business in the Province:

(k.) To guarantee any investment made by the Company as agent or otherwise:

(l.) To accept and execute the office of auditor, and generally to examine, report upon, and audit the books, accounts, conditions, and standing of corporations, partnerships, and individuals:

(m.) To take and receive from any Government or person, on deposit for safe-keeping and storage, gold and silver plate, jewellery, money, stocks, securities, and other valuables and personal property; to rent out the use of safes and other receptacles, and generally to carry on the business of a safe-deposit company:

(n.) To make, enter into, deliver, accept, and receive all deeds, conveyances, assurances, transfers, assignments, grants, and contracts necessary to carry out and promote the objects and business of the Company:

(o.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business of any person or company of a like nature to any business which it is authorized to carry on, together with the property and liabilities connected therewith:

(p.) To execute, carry out, and perform all or any of its objects and business upon such terms as may be agreed upon between it and those dealing with it, and for all its services and duties to charge, collect, and receive all proper remunerations, legal, usual, and customary costs, charges, and expenses.

(2.) That the special resolution for the alteration of the objects of the Company, otherwise than for the purposes of section 46 of the "Trust Companies Act," was confirmed by an order of the Honourable the Chief Justice dated the 2nd day of March, 1933.

(3.) That the Company has, pursuant to section 51 of the "Companies Act," altered its memorandum of association so as to include all of the powers authorized by section 22 of the said Act.

The authorized capital of the Company now is two million dollars, divided into five thousand preference shares of one hundred dollars each and thirty thousand ordinary shares of fifty dollars each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-eighth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring  $10\frac{3}{4}$  inches by  $7\frac{1}{2}$  inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-my1 W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.
